

From: DavidBowlin
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/10/02 5:11pm
Subject: Opinion on how to handle Microsoft Proposed Settlement

Gentlemen,

I suggest that the Justice Department suggest to California and the other 9 states that elected to not settle - to not carry Microsoft products within their states.

Maybe if California and the others realize that if Microsoft were not available, their economies would severely suffer, there would be some room for compromise.

David Bowlin
Sammamish, WA